

Blocking Software Company Responses to Study

The study researchers contacted both N2H2 and SurfControl on June 22, 2003, to give the companies an opportunity to review and respond to the study. A spokesperson for N2H2 responded on June 24, 2003, and said that N2H2 is not interested in submitting a published addition to the report. No SurfControl representative had responded by the time of publication.

