NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS:

NON-APPEARANCE

The Court has considered Respondent's objections to Petitioner's proposed Judgment and Writ.

The objections are overruled, except to the extent incorporated in the modifications made by the Court to the Judgment and Writ signed and filed herein.

A Judgment should be self-contained and should not have attached to it tentative decision or any other matter. The Court's minute order of July 29, 2002 deals with the tentative decision and the tentative decision has been filed and is part of the file.

Evidentiary rulings are also reflected in the Court's minute order and need not be part of and repeated in the Judgment.

Pursuant to order of the Court, a copy of this order, Judgment, Writ, and Notice of Entry of Judgment are served by U.S. Mail this date on:
